

PES
UNIVERSITY
Education • Research • Creativity

Introduction to Communication

SANTOSH KATTI
ASST. PROF.
PES UNIVERSITY

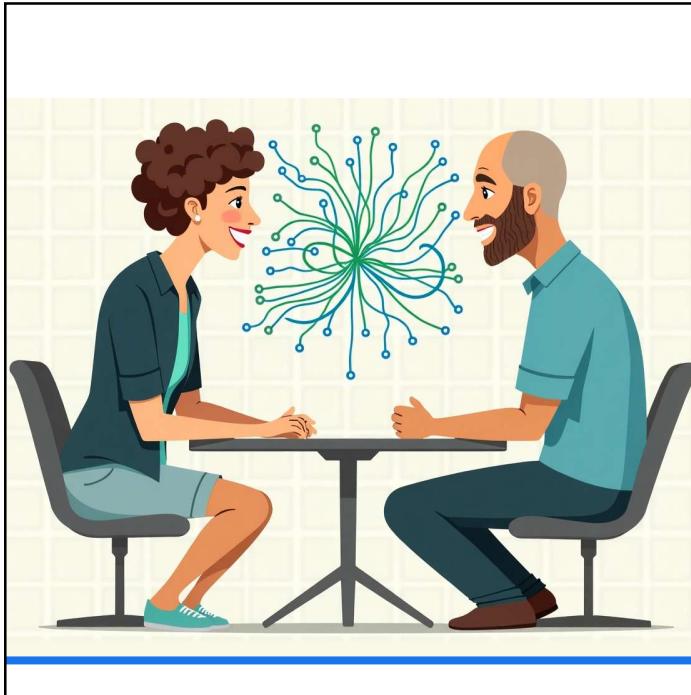

FACULTY & Student Self-Introduction

Introduction to Communication

- What is Communication?
- The process of transmitting and exchanging:
 - Ideas
 - Information
 - Feelings
 - Actions

Introduction to Communication

- Two-way process involving giving and receiving
- Foundation of human interaction and understanding

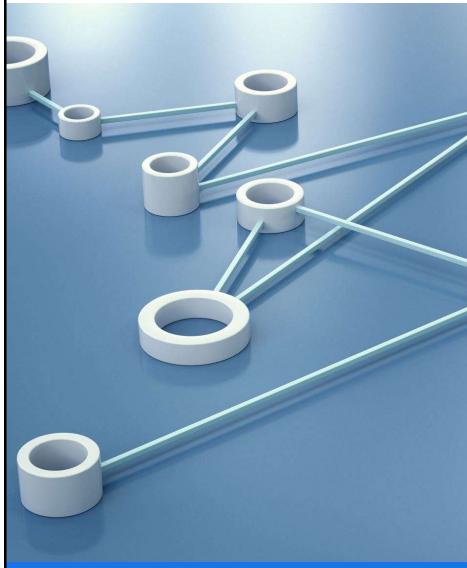

Academic Communication Contexts

- Classroom interactions
- Student-professor consultations
- Group discussions
- Written examinations
- Laboratory reports
- Project presentations
- Peer collaboration

Professional Communication Settings

- Workplace interactions
- Superior-subordinate communications
- Client meetings
- Email correspondence
- Reports and proposals
- Telephone conversations
- Team collaborations

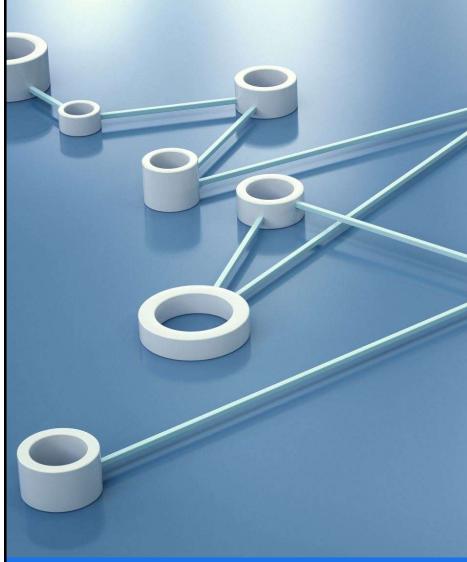

Communication Flow

- Sender initiates message
- Message transmission
- Receiver interprets
- Feedback loop
- Continuous exchange

Example: Student-Professor interaction for concept clarification

Summarize the topic